About Me

“ Hello. My name is Jay. I am a Designer and Creative director. My 10+ years of experience have helped me to develop an extensive knowledge in many areas of graphic design. I have worked for a large variety of companies and design agencies, both independently and as part of a team, making me an extremely versatile designer.

I am very passionate about art and design. Even though I have a diverse background, I am always looking for new opportunities to challenge myself and grow as an artist. ”
